

WORKSHOP HELD IN JAKARTA FOR PAUD TEACHERS

FCI volunteers held a one day teachers workshop at PAUD Rama Rama, Serpong, Jakarta for 13 teachers of the school. The school teaches 73 children ages 3-5. Classes are divided to facilitate an excellent student teacher ratio of 1 teacher for every 4 to 6 students.

The workshop included the showing of the Treasure Attic character building videos for children with a detailed explanation and demonstration of how to most effectively use the accompanying Activity Books.

SCHOOL MATERIALS DONATED IN BANGKA

FCI Volunteers donated needed educational materials at the Budi Mulia school in Bangka.

SPONSORED LUNCH FOR STREET CHILDREN FROM HIMMATA

This past month Family Care Indonesia volunteers facilitated a special lunch for 28 children from the Himmatta Foundation for Street Children and Education in North Jakarta. The event was sponsored by a friend who treated the children to a special lunch at his restaurant. As a gesture of appreciation, the children then played and sang some songs for the restaurant owners. It was an experience the children will long remember.

CHINESE NEW YEAR ACTIVITIES

As part of the Chinese New Year celebration FCI members held a program for street children in the Block M. Terminal complete with an evening meal from KFC made possible by our faithful donors. In addition FCI volunteers visited the Cilincing area to share a meal with parents and children under the umbrella of Yayasan Putri Kasih along with making their regular milk deliveries to an old folk's home and an orphanage.

JAKARTA RACE SERIES CHARITY RUN

For the 4th time FCI volunteers joined the support staff of Jakarta Race Series through manning the registration section. This charity run is for the benefit of several needy area charities.
