MUSIC, GAMES, BALLOONS AND LUNCH FOR BALI ORPHANS AT "HOPE"

Recently Family Care Indonesia volunteers Eve and Mei made a trip to Bali and were joined by FCI members Adriana and Abi who together organized a fun program for the orphans at "Hope". They played games, and sang songs with the children and served a delicious lunch for all the orphans donated by Mr. Sudi at PT Ratu Oceania Raya & Pop Hotel! The team also donated a set of educational character building VCDs for use at the orphanage.

RUMAH KASIH LEMBANG

FCI volunteers completed their first year of institutional support at Rumah Kasih Foundation in Lembang. Support has ranged from donating basic staple goods, gathering educational scholarships and supplies and teaching a motivational English course.

Most recently a new computer and printer were donated and plans are being coordinated to set up a new computer/education room at the orphanage.

SAMARITANIA SCHOOL – BALI

In July, FCI volunteers Terry, Abi and Issy visited the Samaritania School in Bali. They had a fun time with the children singing songs, doing activities, and having a fingers puppet story. At the end of the visit, the volunteers distributed snacks and vitamins for the children.
