Education project in Banjarmasin, South Kalimantan

Albert and Monica travel to Banjarmasin, South Kalimantan to visit several schools and distribute the STEPS Character Building Curriculum Sets as well as motivational books for the libraries. While there they also took time to visit many of the school classes and taught informal English classes. The children were very happy to have this special time. Villages in Central Java

Gary joined a team visiting the small village of Kayen in the area of Juwangi, Boyolali in Central Java. There has been very little rain and the village is quite poor. FCI, via help from sponsors, provided basic food package (a package consisting of 9 staple items such as cooking oil, rice, soap, etc.) for each of the 30 families. When buying the food packets the storekeeper was touched and voluntarily donated 5 large sacks of snack food! We also distributed clothing and spent time talking and counseling with some of the village people. Gary also distributed 250 booklets (5 different titles) of practical and spiritual advice.

In a small single-class preschool (PAUD) provided by caring ladies in the community for children who cannot afford to pay for school, Nathalie taught the children songs and interacted with them. We also delivered sponsored sets of STEPS Character Building Curriculum.

Bandung - Cancer Children

FCI volunteers in Bandung are continuing to visit the Cancer Children's shelter (YKAKB) in Bandung to encourage the children and parents. One of their current projects is raising support for educational equipment for the newly constructed schoolroom at the Hasan Sadikin government hospital. The schoolroom is part of an in-house tutoring program for cancer children. Being able to study and keep up with their schoolwork gives these children hope for the future and speeds up their recovery.
